Abstract. This test is close to the format of the Unified State Exam. It has great advantages over the traditional form of testing knowledge. Student should develop four skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing). This test is helped to teachers to organize students to work on the last lesson of the school term. This article includes topics for reading, Grammar rules, vocabulary which students had been learning during the following school term. These tasks are interesting and useful and give the opportunity to repeat all material. Teachers need not to look up suitable tasks and think about marks and keys.

Keywords: a mid test; English lesson; Grammar rules; Vocabulary; texts.

В настоящее время образовательные стандарты подразумевают обязательную сдачу предмета «Английский язык» на государственной итоговой аттестации. Данный тест составлен на основе учебника «Английский в фокусе» для 6 класса Ю. Е. Ваулиной. В качестве объектов контроля выступают все составляющие иноязычной компетенции, которые в дальнейшем будут оцениваться при проведении ОГЭ. Задания промежуточной контрольной работы соответствуют материалу, изучаемому в 6 классе и могут быть использованы на зачетной неделе в конце первого семестра.

Задание 1. Прочитайте текст. Определите, какие из приведённых утверждений 1–5 соответствуют содержанию текста (True – T), какие не соответствуют (False – F) и о чём в тексте не сказано, то есть на основании текста нельзя дать ни положительного, ни отрицательного ответа (Not stated – NS).

Many Russian people have a plot of land out in the country called a “dacha”. They often have a small house there where they can relax or grow fruit and vegetables in the garden.

Dachas are usually a few kilometers outside the city. So Friday evening and Saturday morning thousands of cars, buses and local trains carry millions of people to their dachas outside the city. People carry bags, backpacks and small carts with what they need for a relaxing weekend at the dacha. You can often see cats and dogs in the cars as people usually take their pets with them.

People spend their weekends at their dachas during the spring, summer and autumn. During the spring people clear the garden. Many people plant vegetables such as cucumbers, tomatoes, onions and potatoes while others prefer to grow flowers. In the summer, families swim and fish in nearby lakes and rivers. They also pick fruit and berries which they use to make jam. Autumn is the most beautiful season on the dacha. All of the trees, grass and plants are green, red and yellow and there are a lot of colorful flowers.

During the long, cold Russian winters, people can't wait to return to their dachas. There they can relax and get away from the busy city life.

WOMAN: Hallo.

MAN: Hello. My name's Bill. I live one floor above you, on the 4th floor. I'm in apartment 5. Welcome to the building.

WOMAN: Oh, hi! My name's Martha.

MAN: is there anything I can do for you? I like to help new people in the building.

WOMAN: Oh, you are very kind. Actually, I have got a problem you can help me with.

MAN: Oh, what is it?

WOMAN: Well, I can find my way to the post office, but I can't find my way to the bank or the supermarket.

MAN: Oh, that's easy. The bank is on Maple Avenue and the supermarket is on Beech Drive – oops, I mean Birch Drive.

WOMAN: Thanks. And where's the park? I have got three little boys and they love going to the park.

MAN: So do my four little girls. Anyway, there are two parks. One is on Willow Avenue and the other one is on Elm Road.

WOMAN: Well, that's great. Thanks for all your help. I'd better go now. I have to collect the kids from school. It's nearly three.
