

A Study of Under Standing of Terminology of Economics of Std. Xii Students of Anand Town

Gupta Manish Nandkishor¹

ABSTRACT:

A try has been made here to know hardness of technical terms of text-book of Economics of Std.XII Total 200 Students of Arts and commerce streams of higher secondary schools of Anand Town. Conclusion revealed that there was no significant difference between boys and girls in terms of understanding of technical terminology. or among schools.

Keywords: Terminology

INTRODUCTION

Every subject has its own terminology. Without proper under standing of meaning of terminology the subject topic cannot be under stood. So it is necessary to under stand terminology while studying a subject topic.

Here, a try has been made to make a list of terminology of Economics of Std. XII text-book by asking it to students. Then the terms were divided into hard and simple terms and they were evaluated and some suggestions were made at the end.

OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY :

1. To make list of technical terms used in text-book of Economics of Std. XII
2. To make list of terms used in text-book of Economics of Std.XII with reference to sequence of hardeners.
3. To prepare a test of examine their under standing of terms used in text-books of Economics of Std.XI
4. To evaluate understanding of students regarding technical terms on the bais of score obtained by them in the test.

¹M.Com, M.Ed, Christian College Of Education, Anand, Asst. Lecturer,Ph.D in RAI University, Dholka, Ahmedabad

A Study of Under Standing of Terminology of Economics of Std. Xii Students of Anand Town

5. To make separate list of hard terms and easy terms according to their obtained score.
6. To give some suggestions to develop understanding of students.

QUESTIONS OF THE STUDY :

1. Whether there was any difference between teachers and students regarding hardeners of technical terms?
2. Whether there was any difference between Arts students and commerce student regarding hardeners of technical terms ?
3. Whether there was any significant difference between boys and girls regarding hardeners of technical terms ?
4. Whether there was any significant difference among schools regarding hardners of technical terms ?

UNIVERSE :

All students studying in General stream of Higher Secondary schools of Anand town were taken as universe.

SAMPLE :

50 students each were randomly selected from 4 Higher secondary schools (two arts schools of Arts stream and (two schools of commerce stream). In this way total 200 students (100 boys and 100 girls) were randomly selected from four Higher secondary schools of Anand town.

Tools : Opinion sheet

RESEARCH METHOD

The researcher used survey method in the present study.

METHOD OF ANALYSIS OF DATA :

- (1) Percentage (2) Marking collection of data :

The researcher prepared opinion sheet with help of experts and teachers of the subject. Opinion sheet was given to sample students to know hardners of technical terms hardners of terms was also asked from subject teachers. Then technical terms were tabulated in hard and easy words according to score obtained by students.

A Study of Under Standing of Terminology of Economics of Std. Xii Students of Anand Town

FINDINGS :

1. Technical terms which were more hard for teachers were considered rather hard by students.
2. Technical terms which were hard were considered 'rather hard' than 'ordinary hard' by students.
3. Technical terms which were rather hard were considered most hard by students.
4. technical terms which were easy were considered most hard by students.
5. technical terms which were most hard were considered ordinary hard by boys and girls.
6. Technical terms which were hard were considered 'rather hard' by boys and girls.
7. Technical terms which were hard were considered rather hard by all the four school students.
8. Technical terms which were hard than ordinary hard were considered hard by Arts students and rather hard by commerce stream.
9. Technical terms which were easy were considered rather hard by the students of both the stream.

CONCLUSION :

1. There was no significant difference between boys and girls in term of hardness of technical terms.
2. Technical terms which were considered hard by Arts students were considered rather hard has commerce students.
3. There was no significant difference among four schools in terms hardness of technical terminology.

SUGGESTIONS :

1. Gujarat state text-book Board should prepare list of technical form in each subject with the help of experts.

A Study of Under Standing of Terminology of Economics of Std. Xii Students of Anand Town

2. Teachers of particular subject should get together and should make such list of technical terminology.
3. Private agencies also can prepare and publish such booklet of terminology.

REFERENCE MATERIAL :

Bhatt Nirmala J. (1991) Study of Under standing of technical terms of Economics of students of Std.XI of Surat city. An unpublished M. Ed Dissertation, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat.