Message from Editor Desk.....

Dear All,

I am happy to announce launch of international Journal Current Research in Pharmaceutical Sciences published by EMPRO India. We are committed to launching new journal. New titles help build emerging fields of study, enhance communication within existing research communities, and stimulate creative discourse at disciplinary interfaces. We believe that well-chosen, properly supported launches play a crucial role in the advancement of knowledge and global pharmacy research.

Current Research in Pharmaceutical Sciences published by EMPRO India is committed to provide a unique platform to globally share the idea, research & discoveries in various facets of science. Along with the variety of services to be offered for professionals involved in Pharmaceutical Sciences

CRPS will provide an ideal platform for all researchers involved in the field of pharmacy to utilize CRPS for their research purpose. Moreover, they will be encouraged for submitting their latest research finding and review topics in the form of written manuscripts in CRPS.

CRPS is dedicated to publish quality scientific work in its journals published by EMPRO India with motto of "Enlightening wisdom, Empowering profession". I request you to be a part of this revolution by joining us and consider our journals for publication of your valuable research work.
