

Million Reasons to Give Up by Arshi Garg

With the every piece of my heart.
Going my shadows apart.

To search a purpose of this life ,
Hold the sword or just the knife.

Though I climb every mountain,
Pushing forward with all the pain.

Doubt regarding dreams it lend,
Whether I gonna remember till end.

Feel like breaking the silence,
I don't want any more tolerance.

Millions reasons to give up,
But few still keeps the hope up.

Arshi Garg, 19, is a student and loves to write poems. She wants to become a famous poet in life.
